

Ideas for Displaying Kids' Artwork

Install a wire with clips where you can easily and quickly change out pieces of artwork as your child makes new creations. This can be as elaborate or as simple as you want.

Here's where you can get them:

<https://amzn.to/3xuWSCM> (affiliate link)

Turn the artwork into a treasured album.

You can do this by taking pictures and physically putting them into a scrapbook type album or uploading them to a website like snapfish, mixbook or shutterfly.

These front opening frames make it super easy to change out projects quickly and easily. The best part is that it looks like a real piece of art in your home and blends seamlessly with any home decor. You can get them here:

<https://amzn.to/3qI1the> (affiliate link)

Use shallow floating shelves as a display area.

This can work for both arts and crafts since there is a little more space. You can even frame some items. This kind of display is easy to change as often as you'd like. You can find shelves here: <https://amzn.to/3dnxXKG> (affiliate link)